

re: relaxing rules on ownership of multiple outlets: Allowing one or a few large corporations to have even more stations in a market or many markets UNDERMINES COMPETITION by preventing other, smaller voices from being heard. It is anti-American, monopolistic, and a thinly-veiled administration attempt to stifle the free flow of information, ideas, and honest dissent.